FIGHT OF HER LIFE.

Hard Fought Legal Battle Is Looked For.

Austin, Sept. 23.—Texas, through her railroad commission and shipping interests generally, is to put up the fight of her life before the interstate commerce commission next Monday when the commission's complaint comes up for hearing at St. Louis. A mass of data has been gathered by Assistant Attorney General Pollard, and the commission has also compiled a large amount of statistics showing the 10 per cent increase in interstate freight rates is unjustifiable. Judge Pollard and Chairman Mayfield leave at once and they are to be followed by Engineer Thompson and Auditor Bond of the commission. Judge Sam R. Cowan of Fort Worth has been engaged by the Shippers' association to fight the increase. He will also be at the hearing.

The first step toward enforcing the collection of unpaid taxes by the twenty-first life insurance companies that withdrew from the state last July on account of the Robertson insurance law, was taken Wednesday by Commissioner of Insurance Love, who addressed a communication to the attorney general calling his attention to the matter. Mr. Love declares in his communication that these companies owe the state taxes for the entire year 1907, as the taxes paid by these companies in January, 1907, were for the year previous. Mr. Love requests that the attorney general take such steps as the law requires to collect these taxes, also penalties against these companies for failure to pay the tax, the penalties being $5,000 against each company. Approximately $200,000 in taxes is claimed due the state by these companies.

DISTRICT COURT.

Election Case Comes up Friday—115 Witnesses Summoned.

There was little doing in the district court Wednesday. The only case set for trial, that of the State of Texas vs George Bounds, charged with murder in the second degree, was continued until March 1909 term. During the day, however three certificates of naturalization were issued, and other matters of minor importance given attention.

The cases as scheduled are: Ella B. Wilson, theft of property; reset for September 28.

John Spencer, theft of property; reset for September 28.

ORGAN RECITAL.

The Postponed Event Will Occur To- morrow Night.

The program published herewith is his own best recommendation. Only musicians of ability could participate in a production where is featured the work of such masters as Bach, the great fugueist; Strauss, prince of the waltz; Mendelssohn, Buck, Tosti, von Suppe, Gounod, and Wagner,— the master of them all. Bryan is to be congratulated upon the fact that she possesses musicians capable of pre- senting so meritorious an offering as that scheduled for to-morrow night, and the reputation of the ladies con- tributing to the program is an assur- ance of an artistic musical produc- tion.

The recital is given complimentary to T. W. C. and will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock Friday night at the Baptist church.

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Begins Tomorrow Night at Starlight and Continues Until Saturday

The services usually conducted by the Hebrews of this city, in honor of Roshashona, the Jewish New Year, which begins at starlight Friday evening, the 25th, and continues until the same time Saturday evening, will not be observed this year, because of the lack of a quorum to conduct same. Nine men are required besides the rabbi, to properly conduct the cere- monies commemorating the day. This will be the first time in ten years the Jews of this city have failed in this respect. The Jewish mercantile houses will be closed during the lapsing between the services. The services will be omitted.
